

AN AWARENESS PROGRAMME ON AGAINST THE MENACE OF DOWRY

An awareness programme titled “Against the Menace of Dowry” was successfully organized at Nagaon G.N.D.G. Commerce College on March 27, 2026. The event was jointly conducted by the NCC Unit and the Department of Hindi of the college, aiming to sensitize students and the community about the social evils of dowry. The programme was held at the Conference Hall of the Administrative Building at 12:30 PM and witnessed active participation from students, faculty members, and NCC cadets. The initiative focused on creating awareness about the harmful effects of the dowry system, which continues to impact society despite legal prohibitions. The Principal of the college, Dr. Mriganka Saikia, elaborated on the objective of the programme and spoke in detail about how dowry as an evil practice prevailing in society. He emphasized the urgent need to eradicate such social evils through awareness, education, and collective responsibility. Some students also shared their views on the issue, highlighting the adverse impacts of the dowry system on society and advocating for meaningful change. Students namely Shraboni Modak, BBA 6th Semester, Aadil Hoque, B.Com. 6th Semester, Mridul Das, B.Com. 4th Semester and Chanda Kumari, B.com 6th Semester spoke in detail on the dark side of the practice of dowry. The programme was anchored by A.N.O. Dr. Puja Neog, Assistant Professor, Department of Hindi, who conducted the Programme smoothly. The programme concluded with a call to action for all to stand united against the practice of dowry and promote dignity and respect in matrimonial relationships.

Dr. Mriganka Saikia
PRINCIPAL
NAGAON GNDG
COMMERCE COLLEGE
NAGAON :ASSAM