

STUDENTS' DAY OBSERVED AT NAGAON G.N.D.G. COMMERCE COLLEGE

Nagaon G.N.D.G. Commerce College observed Students' Day on March 31, 2026 to commemorate the birth anniversary of Upendranath Brahma, fondly known as "Bodofa", a revered student leader and social activist. The programme commenced with a solemn tribute to the memory of Bodofa Upendra nath Brahma by lighting up earthen lamp in front of his photograph. Dr. Mriganka Saikia, Principal of the college, attended the event as the resource person and delivered an insightful lecture highlighting the ideals and contributions of Upendranath Brahma's life, inspiring students to uphold his vision and values. The programme was anchored by Prof. Aranya Jyoti Gayan, Associate Professor, Department of Management. The event witnessed the active participation of teaching and non-teaching staff along with a large number of students, making the occasion both meaningful and memorable.
