

7 DAYS SPECIAL NSS CAMP

NAGAON G.N.D.G. COMMERCE COLLEGE

NSS UNIT

The seven-day special camp organized by the NSS unit of Nagaon G.N.D.G. Commerce College was began on May 10, and concluded successfully on May 16 at No. 1 Adarsha Gaon in Barhampur, the adopted village of the college. The camp was organized at the premises of Adarsha Gaon Primary School with the active participation of NSS volunteers and local residents, aiming to promote social awareness and community development in the village. During the seven-day special camp, the NSS volunteers carried out several social welfare and developmental activities, including cleanliness and plantation drives in the village. The volunteers also conducted special classes on literacy and numeracy for school students to support their educational development. As part of the programme, an anti-drug awareness meeting was organized on May 15, 2026, at the premises of the Shiva Temple in No. 1 Adarsha Gaon, Barhampur. The programme witnessed the participation of village residents, including men and women, along with NSS volunteers. The awareness meeting was presided over by the Principal of the college, Dr. Mriganka Saikia and attended by Additional Superintendent of Police (Crime Branch), Nagaon district, Mr. Abutani Doley and Deputy Superintendent of Police, Mr. Deep Singha. Speaking as a resource person, Mr. Abutani Doley delivered an informative speech highlighting various types of drugs, stages of addiction, and preventive measures against drug abuse. He also elaborated on the responsibilities of the police administration and the crucial role of society in combating the menace of drugs. Simultaneously, the NSS volunteers organized drawing and quiz competitions for school students with the objective of encouraging their intellectual and creative development. At the closing ceremony held on May 16 at Adarsha Gaon Primary School, certificates and prizes were distributed among the students securing first, second, and third positions in the competitions. Certificates were also awarded to all NSS volunteers who participated in the camp with dedication and sincerity. The entire programme was conducted under the supervision of NSS Programme Officer Mr. Ram Prasad Pator. Local residents highly appreciated the sincere efforts undertaken by the NSS volunteers toward creating social awareness and contributing to the overall development of the village. With an overwhelming response and cooperation from the public, the seven-day NSS special camp concluded successfully.
