

NAGAON G.N.D.G. COMMERCE COLLEGE OBSERVES ZUBEEN DIBAS

Nagaon G.N.D.G. Commerce College observed Zubeen Dibas on September 19, 2026, paying heartfelt tribute to the iconic cultural personality of Assam, Zubeen Garg, and remembering his unparalleled contributions to Assamese music, culture and humanity. The programme was organized by the Students' Union of the College. The programme commenced with the ceremonial lighting of the lamp, followed by floral tributes to the legendary artist by the Principal, Vice-Principal, faculty members and students. Speaking on the occasion, Ms. Bijumoni Pathak, Vice-Principal of the college highlighted Zubeen Garg's immense contribution to the cultural heritage of Assam and emphasized his role as a powerful voice for humanity, social harmony and social change. Thereafter, Dr. Mriganka Saikia, Principal spoke about Zubeen Garg's remarkable contribution to Assamese culture and his enduring influence on the cultural landscape of the state. He also recalled the artist's unique ability to connect with people through his music and creative expression. The programme also featured a colourful cultural presentation by the teachers and students of the college, reflecting the rich cultural spirit associated with Zubeen Garg's artistic legacy. The commemorative programme concluded on an emotional note with a collective rendition of Zubeen Garg's iconic song "Mayabini." Teachers, non-teaching staff and students joined together in singing the timeless song, turning the closing moments into a deeply moving tribute to the legendary musician. The programme concluded with a renewed remembrance of Zubeen Garg's enduring contribution to Assamese culture and his message of humanity, which continues to inspire generations.
