

NAGAON G.N.D.G. COMMERCE COLLEGE SHINES IN DISTRICT-LEVEL SPEECH COMPETITION UNDER SEVA SANKALP ABHIYAN

Students of Nagaon G.N.D.G. Commerce College brought laurels to the institution by securing three positions in the District-Level Speech Competition organized under the Seva Sankalp Abhiyan on October 12, 2026, at Nagaon Vivekananda High School. The competition was organized by the Inspector of Schools, Nagaon District Circle, Nagaon, Assam. Students from various colleges across Nagaon district participated in the competition, which was conducted in two categories: Undergraduate (UG) and Postgraduate (PG). The participants showcased their oratory skills, confidence and perspectives on the subject through their speeches.

Neha Konwar and Devlina Bora of Nagaon G.N.D.G. Commerce College secured the second and third positions, respectively, in the postgraduate category, while Kangkana Medhi bagged the third position in the undergraduate category. Their achievements brought pride and recognition to the college. Miss Jumi Kalita and Miss Afsana Begum, Guest Faculty members of the Department of M.Com., coordinated and guided the participating students throughout the competition. The college fraternity congratulated the achievers and appreciated their commendable performance, wishing them continued success in their future endeavours.
