Nagaon G.N.D.G. Commerce College Celebrates Birth Anniversary of Zubeen Garg with Grandeur

The birth anniversary of legendary Assamese singer, musician, composer and cultural icon Zubeen Garg was celebrated with great enthusiasm and solemn reverence at Nagaon G.N.D.G. Commerce College on 18th November, 2026. The programme was graced by Mrs. Bijumoni Pathak, Principal of the College; Sjt. Pradip Kumar Bora, President of the Governing Body; Dr. Satyendra Kr. Pandey, Vice-Principal; Mr. Jiten Borkakati, President of Nagaon Press Club; and guest singer Neer Abid, along with faculty members, non-teaching staff and students. An important highlight of the occasion was the inauguration of four college clubs, namely the Literary Club, Eco Club, Sports Club and Cultural Club, marking a significant step towards promoting literary, environmental, sporting and cultural activities among students. A vibrant cultural programme added colour to the celebration, with students showcasing their talents through various musical and cultural performances. The performances reflected the immense popularity and enduring influence of Zubeen Garg on Assamese music and culture. The programme concluded on an emotional note with all the participants standing together and singing Zubeen Garg's iconic song "Mayabini" as a heartfelt tribute to the legendary artist. The collective rendition created a memorable moment, reflecting the deep affection, admiration and respect that people continue to hold for him. The programme was anchored by Prof. Natasha Baruah, Assistant Professor, Department of Management, Nagaon G.N.D.G. Commerce College.
