

Bir Lachit Borphukan Remembered on his 400th Birth Anniversary Nagaon GNDG Commerce College

Live telecast of the Bir Lachit Borphukan 400th Birth Anniversary Programme from VIGYAN BHAWAN New Delhi

On 25th Nov, 2022 the college participated in the live telecast of the concluding ceremony of the three-day 400th birth anniversary programme of legendary Ahom general Lachit Barphukan at Vigyan Bhawan in New Delhi and with this the closing ceremony of the year-long celebrations of the 400th birth anniversary of Lachit Barphukan on Friday (November 25) at 11 AM in Vigyan Bhawan, New Delhi.

The Prime Minister Narendra Modi on his address said, "Today, India is not only celebrating its varied heritage, but also remembering its brave-heart unsung heroes." He extended that, "New India is moving forward with the mantra of 'Nation First'. When a nation knows about its heritage, it can create a path for its future." The PM also launched a book named 'Lachit Borphukan Assam's Hero Who Halted the Mughals'.

At Vigyan Bhawan in New Delhi, the traditional Tai Ahom culture has been showcasing at the national and international levels. It is for the first time the State Government is showcasing the traditional Tai Ahom culture, including maidams (tumulus of royalty and aristocracy) of medieval Ahom, at the national capital.

Along with the Principal Dr. Mriganka Saikia, College staff and the students of the college viewed the live telecast which lifted the moral and patriotic sense in all of us.

