Institutional Distinctiveness

Institutional Distinctiveness

Nagaon GNDG Commerce College proudly holds the distinction of being the sole full-fledged college of commerce in the central Assam region, and this distinctive position of the college within the educational landscape of the state is a unique feature. This college is a single stream college of commerce and this factor has played a pivotal role for students in selecting their alma mater. The college with a very small but dedicated group of faculty is instrumental in shaping the academic and professional futures of countless students who have walked the corridors of the college.

Mission and Vision

The history of this college is one woven with purpose and determination. Established with the aim of providing specialized education in the realm of commerce; it has stood as a beacon of knowledge in commerce and entrepreneurship for the last several decades. The foresight of the founders in recognizing the need for an institution dedicated solely to commerce education was indeed a prudent step at a time when commerce and industry was not a duly recognised field of prominence. This enterprising vision has paved the way for the college's prominence in the present. Starting off with just 139 students in 1984, it has, since then, in a span of 29 years, expanded to incorporate post graduate course in Commerce in 2009 and the professional course of BBA in 2017 under the academic framework of Gauhati University.

The resolute mission of the college is to equip students with the knowledge, skills needed to compete in an ever changing global environment of commerce, and its vision extends beyond academic excellence. It puts emphasis on holistic development of a student and fostering in them a strong sense of responsibility towards society. This is reflected in the college's academic curriculum that gives them a comprehensive understanding of the course; extracurricular activities which ensures overall development of their physical and psychological health and interactions with the community through NCC, NSS and various other extension activities that opens up for the students various avenues of participatory learning and also strengthens their community bonding.

Course and Curriculum

Besides the programs offered under the University Curriculum that cater to managerial practice, accounting skills, human resource development, business laws and ethics, entrepreneurship, financial systems etc. the Add on courses like Insurance marketing, Sales and Marketing, Accounts maintenance for SHG, GST, E filing of IT returns, Soft skills for Career Growth, Yoga classes, Quantitative Aptitude classes and such others also meet the evolving demands in the field of commerce, business and industry and equip them with knowledge and skills required to excel in their career.

Results

The commitment of the college towards its mission of achieving excellence is reflected in its consistent academic results.

Students have continually excelled in Council and University examinations and their achievements underscore the college's dedication to create an enabling environment of commerce education. The M Com department though a later addition to the college pedagogy is able to show brilliance by securing distinctive ranks in the university.

Alumni Success

The alumni of the college also stand as a testament to its effectiveness in fulfilling its mission and realizing its vision. This too is a contributing factor towards its uniqueness. Our graduates and postgraduates have consistently demonstrated their prowess not only in various fields of commerce and enterprise but they are also seen occupying key positions in both public and private sectors and in the field of Art and Culture as well.

We have academicians like Vice Chancellors, University and college professors and school teachers who are now shaping many lives with their invaluable guidance. Our alumnae who are corporate executives and Bank professionals Chartered accountants, Tax consultants, Business owners and Entrepreneurs are valuable assets in various sectors. Their uniqueness can be attributed to their expertise in areas like accounting, finance, and economics, which has opened up diverse career opportunities in both the corporate, financial and business sectors. We also have prominent faces in civil and government services and are proud of notable personalities in the field of politics, films, culture, music , dance, social activities and a host of other areas .This speaks volumes about our commitment to our vision in creating assets for the society who proudly refer to NGNDGCC as their Alma mater.

Pedagogy

In a rapidly changing world, staying updated is imperative. The college recognizes this fact and places great importance on continual faculty development. Regular workshops, seminars, and training sessions are organized to empower our educators with the latest teaching methodologies, industry insights, and technological advancements and this pedagogy filters to the students ensuring that they benefit from the most current and relevant education.

Campus culture

Another unique feature of the college is its commitment to inclusivity, diversity, and equity. This creates a unique and welcoming campus environment. Our students come from different caste, creed, religious and ethnic backgrounds. However, regardless of such diversities there is peace and harmony in the college that stems from the feeling of respect and courtesy that students' teachers and the staff show towards each other irrespective of their personal beliefs and perspectives. Our students participate in various activities of the college and also celebrate traditions, customs and occasions with utmost zeal and enthusiasm. We are proud to declare that in the long course of its journey, there has been no incident of our students engaging in protests or strife either within or out of the college and that is ample evidence to showcase a positive and cohesive learning environment that nurtures a sense of belonging and brotherhood.

The distinctiveness of the commerce college in the central Assam region is palpable in its history, mission, vision, courses, results, alumni, faculty development initiatives and its exemplary campus environment. Dispute being equipped with a limited faculty strength it has continued to champion commerce education, since many decades and has been producing graduates who are well equipped in their careers and are also contributing quite meaningfully to the society. With a steadfast commitment to growth and innovation, the college continues to shape the future of commerce education in the region and beyond.
